

Just before kickoff at the Quarry Bowl on Sept. 9, Evan Orrick leads the varsity football team onto the field. Tickets sold out two days in advance, and the varsity team won 48-34. "I talked to (Coach Mike) Gimenez and asked if I could lead the team out, and he said yes. It was fun! Spirit gets everyone involved. It shows everyone that it can be fun to show spirit. It helps get people who wouldn't normally hang out to go to an event and have fun with each other," Orrick said.

BEST FOOT FORWARD

■ it's coming to school a week early to paint a senior parking spot ■ it's turning in another round of job applications, hoping for an on-the-spot interview ■ it's picking up the empty pizza box littering the amphitheater when no one's watching ■ it's reviewing our lines in the bathroom mirror at lunch to make sure we nail the audition ■ it's changing out of that tank top because we'd rather avoid detention ■ it's buying "No Fear Shakespeare" to make sure we win the "Hamlet" mock trial ■ it's splurging on a dozen roses so she'll have to say yes to that Homecoming offer ■ it's spending the afternoon in the College and Career Center for tutoring on logarithms ■ it's putting our best foot forward that makes us a lot like nothing else
