

9/11: On a difficult anniversary, Urban students find peace in nature

Hannah Sears, Staff Writer

October 12, 2011

Silence, stillness, and mystery; death and nature have always been intertwined, and Urban students felt this connection especially strongly as they hiked through the picturesque Yosemite Valley in California on the 10th anniversary of the attacks on the World Trade Center towers, the Pentagon, and United... Read more >

9/11: Urban History Teacher LeRoy Votto remembers how school reacted

Kyra Berglund, Staff Writer

September 28, 2011

For Urban history teacher LeRoy Votto, recalling the events of 9/11 brings back anger. "I gotta tell you, I was enraged. I also have to tell you, I still am," Votto said. Although some details of what Urban did as a school on that day in 2001 are fuzzy for Votto, what he remembers is how quiet... Read more >

9/11: Bell tolls for victims, firefighters at Transamerica Pyramid stair climb

September 15, 2011

Legend staff writer Jason Cribb reported on the annual Transamerica Pyramid stair climb, sponsored by the National Fallen Firefighters Foundation and the American Lung Association. More than 200 firefighters, some from as far away as Reno, Nev., showed up to climb the 48-story building, many of them... Read more >

9/11: San Francisco Giants stage memorial before

Polls

Looking back, how much has the new grading policy affected your experience at Urban?

I wish we still didn't see our grades. (87%, 2 Votes)

I love seeing my grades. (33%, 1 Vote)

Immensely, I hate it. (0%, 0 Votes)

It hasn't mattered. (0%, 0 Votes)

Total Votes: 3

Polls Archive

Email Updates

Enter your email address below to receive our daily email updates

Enter your email address...

GO