

it's what makes me a lot like
NO ONE ELSE

"I can be very caring and awesome. I have lots of talents, (but I'm) too lazy to list them."
REBECCA SAVA

"I've played seven years of competitive soccer."
MEAGAN HAIGHT

"My weird lingo."
KATIE SOBECK

"I will travel the world and I'm not going to college."
HUNTER BLOFSKY

"I'm not afraid of people judging me."
JESSIE WASELLO

"When I walk into an empty room I can project life-sized objects in the rooms like in detail."
LINDSEY KENEY

"Intolerance of reality shows."
ANTHONY HOAGLAND

"I am on a nationally-ranked competitive shooting team."
MAZIE SVEUM

"I love to be with my family and I love country music."
BRITTANY DIANDA

"I'm a boss."
KOLTON KRUZIC

"I was born in west Philadelphia. Born and raised. Shooting some b-ball outside my school."
JOE LARUSSA

"I'm different because I don't know any other girl, especially Indian and Muslim, who wants to join the Air Force and become an aerial gunner."

Ashin
AFSHIN BHIMANI

A LOT OF SPIRIT

1: During a morning rally on Sept. 9, Adrian Mercado, Haley Martin and Taylor Jimosse lead a flash mob. The rally started at 6 a.m. and was broadcast live on "Good Day Sacramento." "I would still have spirit if I wasn't a cheerleader. I like cheering more at football games and rallies. It's more exhilarating and an adrenaline rush. I lead people through chants, which is kind of weird because I've never thought of myself as a leader. I'm kind of shy, but cheerleading has brought up my confidence," Mercado said. 2: Participating in a lunch activity on Sept. 9, Kyle McCray spins on a bat as a chance to earn spirit points for the sophomore class. 3: Showing spirit during the morning rally, Hunter Lake sits on Alex Witt's shoulders. "I wore the gold suit because it looks cool. I got it from Goodwill for 20 bucks. When I saw it I was like 'Oh my God, that's awesome.' I only wore it to the morning rally and the game. I don't wear it anymore because I lost the hat and the glasses. It's just fun; it's something to do," Lake said. 4: During lunch on Oct. 14, junior powder puff cheerleaders do "the Bernie" in the amphitheater.

KAYLI SHAW

"It's fun to have a lot of school spirit. It catches people's attention and people will follow in suit when they see you dressed up and having fun. For the Quarry Bowl, I tried to get as spirited as I could and tried to lead the student section. I started the wave and I was holding my pee the entire game. In the last 10 seconds of the game I sprinted to the bathroom even though I'm not in shape for that."

COLTON COX

"I like showing spirit for the school because it's a great school and I'm a very charismatic person. I like getting people excited for school events. I wanted to be in leadership but I didn't have time in my schedule. Towards the end of games if we are winning I start break dancing and it starts the battle. It's a way to express myself when energy gets me going I've got to find a way to release it and break dancing is the best way to do it."

TEARNY COX

"I like to dress up and tell other people to dress up. If you don't support your team, how do you expect them to do well? It's important to show school spirit. If one person dresses up, then one more will at some point. It's like a chain reaction."

Sarah Gruenewald
Katherine Gruessing
Matthew Guerrero
Alyssa Gunning
David Gutierrez
Luis Gutierrez
Jason Gutierrez Jr.
Tyler Gutierrez Pirkle
Logan Guzman

Kabrina Hall
Megan Hall
Emily Haller
Kyle Hallman
Jake Hammett
John Hammock
Seth Hankins
Tyler Harris
Mackenzie Harrison

David Hawkins
Mason Hawkins
Cassidy Helton
Stephanie Henderson
Lindsey Hendrickson
Marykate Henry
Brandon Hernandez
Alex Hetrick
Ryan Hodgens

Tammy Hogan
Tyler Holland
Masrah Holmes Yarbrough
Julian Huelsenkamp
Andrew Huie
Blu Hunt
Andrew Huskey
Yazan Ibrahim
Sara Ilanit

Nicolette Immers
Kelsey James
Devin Jarnagin
Caleb Jenkins
Kayla Jobes
James Johnson
Cody Johnsrud
Michael Juelch
Jonathan Justus

Romey Kang
Jessica Katsuyama
Rupinder Kaur
Lindsey Keney
Francis Kim
Tyler Kindice
Christopher Kovalez
Kayla Krogh
Ashley Kronberger

Karston Kruzic
Kristin Ladas
Kelsea Lake
Christopher Lam
Noah Lambert
Jacob Lambeth
Samantha Lanz
Ciara Lavezzo
Christopher LaVoie

Donavan Lawrence
Kelsey Leach
Michael Leach
Brenton Lee
Justin Lemke
Blake Leon
Abigail Leonard
Xochitl Lerma
Grace Leverton

Kevin Lewis
Taylor Loew Garrelts
Maxwell Lofton
Macie Lopez
Kristyn Lorek
Alexa Love
Ryan Lowry
Amy Lu
Michelle Maas