CONCENTRATION IS KEY: The Varsity Boys huddled around during a Time-Out to strategize their victory against the SLO Tigers.

Drowning the Competition

A whirlpool of victory was achieved as the boys water polo team dominated their turf.

Whether it be their amazing lung capacity or their connection as a whole, the boys on the water polo teams complete their ranks and treat every game with a fulfilled heart. Their season consisted of dives of effort from each individual as Varsity scored all-time plays: beating Atascadero, San Luis Obispo, and especially Righetti on September 7th. Team spirit remained at an all time high everyone respecting their attitudes and propelling themselves through new obstacles. Teammates also shared their compassion and appreciation for each other throughout various interviews as Evan Swettenam (12) stated "Cody Domingos is not the biggest there is, but still plays with all his heart." To accompany that, goal stacking captain, Reily Lowry (12) also sent positivity to Cody and said "He really connects well with everyone on the team and puts us first, without thinking too much of himself." Each of these players, whether it be the Varsity or Junior Varsity team, has shown their own set of attributes and skills that overall make their team seem more like a family. Overall, the water polo teams excelled in sportsmanship, perseverance, and having soul as they have fought their way to create a significant and memorable season.
