TEACHERS REFLECT ON THEIR HIGH SCHOOL DREAM CAREERS

Photos by Eric Jaramillo

VET

Ms. Tricia Crane

“When I was younger, I really wanted to be a veterinarian. Actually, I ended up being in veterinary medicine for around ten years, but I didn't go to school for it because back then it was harder to go through veterinary schooling than it was to be just a physician. I would have loved to stick with it.”

ROCK STAR

Mr. Adrian McMahon

“I always grew up around music, [and when] I would stay with my father during the summer, he'd be playing in different bands. Back then, I was a bass player [and I took] lessons with a guy named Alfonso Johnson.”

LAWYER

Ms. Christy Heaton

“I'm a government nerd and love court cases and things like that. But now, [as a teacher], I get to take two things I love and put them together, and I also get to inspire other people with the law.”

DRINK 2

Homemade
Kirkland Coffee

“I'm obsessed with the [Kirkland Signature] cold brew cans from Costco. I buy those in bulk, and then I make myself coffee [with vanilla creamer].”

DRINK 3

Starbucks
Lemonade

“I get a strawberry açai lemonade with no strawberries because I don't like when they get stuck in my teeth.”
