

Emma Milne, 12

She overcame the obstacles / "This year I got the AP scholar award for getting 2 4s on an AP test and then another 3 so that was pretty cool. I think it proved to myself that I wasn't dumb because I felt that at times but it showed that I can take these higher level classes that others struggle with."

A SUMMER Of Singing

Music enthusiasts share their summer concerts and performances

"SWEATING BULLETS" ON SET

Freshman Quinn Feeley performs 'Sweating Bullets' by Megadeth live with his band. Feeley and other individuals traveled to L.A., Vegas, Tahoe and Vacaville for a summer touring program. "You audition for it, I got into it and you play a lot of shows around the area. That's one of the L.A. nightclubs called the Troubadour, super famous, that one's my favorite," said Feeley. ## POST SUMMER CONCERT

Starting off the school year, senior Lauryn Shohbozian and freshman Kaelyn Larson attend the Post Malone concert at the Toyota Amphitheater on Aug. 15. Larson asked Shohbozian to join her at the concert the night before, making it a last minute decision for Shohbozian. "I'm really close with my cousin, I see her pretty often and she comes over once in a while. A few friends that go to Antelope were there and my boyfriend and his friends, it was fun," said Shohbozian. Photo by Lauryn Shohbozian

A CRUEL SUMMER

After years of wanting to see Taylor Swift, freshman Mikayla Zemanovic finally gets to live her dream. Initially, Zemanovic felt sad when she wasn't able to get tickets, but her mom ended up surprising her. "I was really excited because I've been talking about wanting to see the Eras Tour and I have been asking to go," said Zemanovic. Photo provided by Mikayla Zemanovic

CAKE AND COUNTRY

In San Diego, freshman Charlotte Hamilton attends a Morgan Wallen concert with her mom on July 20. Hamilton enjoyed her birthday getting to see her favorite country artist who even sang her favorite song, 'Cover Me Up'. "It was my first concert that was far away. I've been to other kinds of concerts but they were just bad people [performance-wise]," said Hamilton. Photo provided Charlotte Hamilton

"All the Girls You Loved Before", that one was just more familiar to me and especially because it was a bonus from the Lover track, that one was just better for me to sing to. I got really excited because I actually got surprise songs that I actually knew, it was a great moment and experience for me. -Mikayla Zemanovic

Cuts that Didn't Make the Cut

Individuals share the worst haircut they have gotten

"Freshman year, I got the most ratched haircut that was supposed to be a little trim but she ended up chopping up my hair and giving me a mullet."

Elizabeth Watson, 12

"My worst haircut is the one I have right now, it's terrible."

Oleksandr Goldenberg, 10

"My grandpa cut my hair, I went walking home and my mom said 'you got a bald spot' and I had to go back to my grandparents house and they had to cut it all."

Fetalaigatuaiselelei Afula, 11

"I had this bob and I still had brown hair so I looked like the berries and cream guy, with the bangs and everything."

Isabella Thompson, 10

"The worst haircut I had is bangs. I used to have bangs, it'd be uneven and it'd cover my eyebrows."

Andrew Scott, 9
