

WE'VE GOT a lot to say

Students share about some of the many languages spoken on campus.

"An interesting aspect is that ARABIC is one of the hardest languages in the world and honestly sometimes it just looks like scribbles, and there is like 3 different ways to write each letter."

"Before moving to the US, I lived in the same apartment complex in Kyiv as my grandparents, and every day I would visit them and read UKRAINIAN novels and encyclopedias with my grandpa in his library."

ARSENII TARASENKO '25

"Mainly in communicating with my mom's side of the family. Also academically, because since I can speak JAPANESE, I'm looking into going to college there."
